How to make your profile effective

Your profile should be dynamic, fresh, and showcase all your key activities along with up-to-date information.

- Post regularly (at least once a month) about your live performances, tour dates, releases etc.
- Reels with music tend to attract festival organizers and other users the most
- Inactive profiles are more difficult to promote and secure bookings for

Artunio team members who communicate directly with festivals, always prioritize promoting active profiles prior to inactive ones.

Further steps & information:

Verify your account by following the steps outlined in the “Verification” PDF. The entire process is completely free.

If you register and verify your account on time, you'll be added to the limited shortlist among others artists in the Artunio Artist Project.

Verified accounts can post YouTube links in the 'Videos' section of their profiles and on the homepage for easy access.

If a festival is interested in booking you, either we will reach out to you, or the festival will contact you directly.
